

I am in support of having portable cell phone numbers.
My business requires me to use a cell phone and I want to be able to change my service without losing the number I have established for my business. The expense of changing and printing all new materials would be prohibitive.